THE RAINBOW SPOT ASSOCIATION
PROVIDES INFORMATION AND SUPPORT
TO LGBTQIA+ MIGRANTS

The Rainbow Spot association supports LGBTQIA+ migrants in the canton of Vaud. Through its telephone hotline and individual interviews by appointment, Rainbow Spot informs and supports people in social, legal and administrative matters (residence permits, asylum procedure, access to health care, health insurance, civil and family law, situations of discrimination and violence). The association also connects people and offers shared safer spaces for exchanges and meetings. It works in collaboration with the canton's associations and institutions working in the fields of social services, health and migration, including carrying out awareness raising activities and trainings.

Our phone lines are available Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10am to 12pm, and the appointments Tuesdays and Thursdays from 2pm to 4pm. We are located in the offices of the Nouvelle ADC, rue du Maupas 81, 1004 Lausanne.
